WHOLESALE LIST ONLY WHILE THEY LAST

We were building a green house and it was wrecked by wind. We have a great surplus of plants here and no place to put them. The only reason we are making this special is for immediate sale. We believe we have stock that will last on this sale about 3 three weeks at the most.

The plants are exactly as discribed here.

Epidendrum Aromaticum - This plant has a head or large cluster of rust colored flowers. Very fragrant. This flowers vary greatly in color from emerald green and yellow to dark rust or bronze color. They change color while they are in bloom. We have had many of these that we checked and the flowers will last almost two months.

Mounted plants on plaques of cork or fern root which ever is available when your order arrives of above. Each 1.50 or $15.00 dozen
Un-mounted bare root plants Epid. Aromaticum Never loses it's leaves or takes a set back 10 plants very large $ 7.50

" " Regular 10 . . . 7.50

" " Very Large 10 . . . 10.00

High specimen plants (white flowers) each 5.00 These Chysis are excellent plants.

Brassavolae Glauca - I have only about 100 of these at $1.00 each if your order is late, please give us second choice.

The above plants can be sold in assortments (My choice) 100 plants if ordered at once we will give you your choice at $65.00 per 100 if possible. This is only because we are desperate for space. We would rather sacrifice the plants than let them die for lack of proper green house space.

This is not a permanent price list but a special. You will not see it in a month from now. This is a legitimate sale not a money raising campaign. All orders sent Via Railway Express Collect unless specified directions are sent, and postage included. No C.O.D. Orders.
